

Learnings from a Community-University Partnership:

Guidelines for Conducting Research on Homelessness in Partnership with Lived Experts

Do you conduct research on homelessness or hope to in the future? For the past few months, the Salt Lake Valley Coalition to End Homelessness Lived Experience Team and University of Utah researchers have been working to develop a set of guidelines for conducting research on homelessness in Utah to meaningfully include lived experts in research processes. Join us to hear our suggestions, receive a copy of the guidelines, and hear about our process of developing them.

“Imagine a world where lived expertise is not just recognized but truly valued. Us as lived experts bring unparalleled insights, wisdom, and perspectives that simply can’t be found in textbooks or research papers. Our contributions are not just a checkbox on a diversity list; they are the heart and soul of real change.”
